

APPLY TODAY

CUIC Institute on Ecumenism

The Churches Uniting in Christ (CUIC) Institute on Ecumenism is a young adult cohort designed to help train people in the Ecumenical and Interreligious Movements. Participants will be guided in the history and theology of the Ecumenical Movement, the history and theology of the Interreligious Movement, current trends in both, and the particular connections among the CUIC Member Communions. This program is financially supported by CUIC, which means all expenses are paid.

Qualifications:

- Age 40 or younger
- Commit to 10 months of training
- Travel for two three-day in-person gatherings
- Have access to a phone and the internet
- Willingness to lead a ministry project in their home context
- Must live within the United States

Apply before August 14, 2026

All application requests and questions may be directed to: cuicinstitute@gmail.com